

VOCABULARY FOR 6, JUNE 2018

1. DOCTOR (VERB): Interfere

Synonyms: meddle, tinker

Antonyms: assist, support

Example Sentence: Do not doctor in between the process.

2. HEARTFELT (ADJECTIVE): Sincere

Synonyms: genuine, unaffected

Antonyms: insincere, pretended

Example Sentence: I pay my heartfelt regards to them.

3. DESPOIL (VERB): destroy

Synonyms: desecrate, devour

Antonyms: construct, assemble

Example Sentence: We must despoil our enemy and his objectives.

4. DETER (VERB): inhibit from action

Synonyms: dissuade, forestall

Antonyms: facilitate, aid

Example Sentence: We must deter from starting a war.

5. GRIM (ADJECTIVE): horrible in manner

Synonyms: stern, horrid

Antonyms: pleasant, comforting

Example Sentence: The grim experience of the film, was devastating for their morale.

6. CALLOUSNESS (NOUN): absence of interest

Synonyms: nonchalance, aloofness

Antonyms: compassion, sympathy

Example Sentence: His callousness shows how careful is he.

7. ASSAULT (VERB): attack

Synonyms: assail, charge

Antonyms: retreat, regroup

Example Sentence: Whenever we assault, we destroy our enemy.

8. SOLITARY (ADJECTIVE): alone

Synonyms: sole, lone

Antonyms: sociable, combined

Example Sentence: We must combat the enemy using our solitary units

9. SERENE (ADJECTIVE): calm

Synonyms: laid-back, placid

Antonyms: clamorous, turbulent

Example Sentence: We must work in a serene environment.

10. ACCUSTOMED (ADJECTIVE): be used to

Synonyms: acquainted, habituated

Antonyms: unaccustomed, unusual

Example Sentence: We must get accustomed people to get the job done.

