

VOCABULARY FOR 06 APRIL 20231. CONUNDRUM (NOUN):*(समस्या) : problem*Synonyms: difficult, quandaryAntonyms: solutionExample Sentence: One of the most difficult conundrums for the experts.2. VICE (NOUN):*(अनैतिकता) : immorality*Synonyms: wrongdoing, wickednessAntonyms: virtueExample Sentence: The center was often referred as an open sewer of vice and crime.3. EXEMPT (ADJECTIVE): (छूट) : free from*Synonyms: exempted, sparedAntonyms: liable toExample Sentence: These patients are exempt from all charges.4. PALLIATIVE (ADJECTIVE): (पीड़ा हटानेवाला) : soothing*Synonyms: alleviating, sedativeAntonyms: intensifyingExample Sentence: Many old medicines are only palliative.5. RESILIENT (ADJECTIVE): (स्थिति-स्थापक) : strong*Synonyms: tough, hardyAntonyms: vulnerableExample Sentence: Babies are generally far more resilient than new parents realize.6. EXTRADITE (VERB) (प्रत्यर्पण करना) : deport*Synonyms: hand over, repatriateAntonyms: keepExample Sentence: India refused to extradite him to the Netherlands.7. BOOST (VERB): (बढ़ाना) : improve*Synonyms: raise, upliftAntonyms: decreaseExample Sentence: A range of measures boosted tourism.8. FUNDAMENTAL (ADJECTIVE): (मौलिक) : basic*Synonyms: foundational, rudimentaryAntonyms: secondaryExample Sentence: The fundamental human rights must be protected.9. BREACH (NOUN):*(उल्लंघन) : contravention*Synonyms: violation, breakingAntonyms: agreementExample Sentence: They had to go through a breach.10. RENOWNED (ADJECTIVE):*(प्रसिद्ध) : famous*Synonyms: celebrated, famedAntonyms: unknownExample Sentence: Britain is renowned for its love of animals.