

VOCABULARY FOR 30 DECEMBER 20231. ESCHEW (VERB): (त्याग करना): give up*Synonyms: forgo, forswearAntonyms: indulge inExample Sentence:She appealed to the crowd to eschew violence.2. DESPICABLE (ADJECTIVE): (घृणित): contemptible*Synonyms: loathsome, hatefulAntonyms: admirableExample Sentence:What she did early on was despicable in our minds.3. DIVERGENCE (NOUN): (फर्क): difference*Synonyms: dissimilarity, varianceAntonyms: similarityExample Sentence:What happened at the end was a fundamental divergence of attitude.4. RESILIENCE (NOUN): (लचीलता): flexibility*Synonyms: pliability, plasticityAntonyms: rigidityExample Sentence:Nylon has great abrasion and resilience.5. EQUANIMITY (NOUN): (समभाव): composure*Synonyms: calmness, calmAntonyms: anxietyExample Sentence:She accepted both the good and the bad with equanimity.6. REBUTTAL (NOUN): (खंडन): denial*Synonyms: refutation, disprovingAntonyms: confirmationExample Sentence:Any attempt by me at a rebuttal was met with a yawn.7. DECREPIT (ADJECTIVE): (जर्जर): dilapidated*Synonyms: rickety, run downAntonyms: soundExample Sentence:It was an entire row of decrepit houses.8. SULK (VERB): (उदास होना): mope*Synonyms: brood, poutAntonyms: be cheerfulExample Sentence:He was sulking over the split of his band.9. SCOURGE (NOUN): (अभिशाप): bane*Synonyms: curse, afflictionAntonyms: blessingExample Sentence:India has the scourge of unemployment.10. SOUR (VERB): (कटु बना देना): embitter*Synonyms: anger, exasperateAntonyms: improveExample Sentence:A dispute soured relations between the two countries.